

Angola's Picarra... pricking politicians' pomposity

NEWSWATCH: He's been likened to Angola's Zapiro... satirist Sérgio Piçarra continues to expose the faults in this African state, reports Mail & Guardian...

For more:

- Mail & Guardian: Picarra: Angola's Zapiro... Cartoonist Sérgio Piçarra, who has just ended his association with weekly Luanda newspaper Novo Jornal takes risks in a country with limited freedom of expression. Likened to SA's Zapiro, he's has been entertaining Angolans with his satirical observations on life and politics for more than two decades. He is most famous for his comic strips on a work-shy, beer-loving character called Mankiko, reports Mail & Guardian.

You can still find his political cartoons and his narrative comic strips at www.redeangola.info, from which the caricature and one of his cartoons were extracted to give you an idea of Picarro and his work.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>