Kurt Darren has dedicated a cover song to The Breakfast Special on OFM, which will be included in his new album due for release in November.

The cover, which came about as a joke during an interview with Kurt on The Breakfast Special on OFM, was a prompt for him to live his experience of the road accident through song.

"Kurt played along really well with us during the interview. We played around with a couple of songs about crashes such as 'Crash! Boom! Bang!' by Roxette, 'Lightning Crashes' by Live and 'Crash' by the Primitives. He later settled on 'She Drives Me Crazy' by Fine Young Cannibals," said Andre Kunz, presenter of The Breakfast Special on OFM.

Kurt has just finished work on his new album 'Seerower', which means pirate in English. It's also a play on the fact that he now wears an eye patch as a result of the accident.
