30 Jan 2008

Youth marketing company, Three Ring Circus, has committed to a second consecutive year with Grapevine Communications.

Grapevine will manage the PR/communications for the 2008 Standard Bank Rocking Future Roadshow, which has been running for eight years and assists matric students in their future career decision-making process.

The Roadshow visits over 200 high schools per annum, informing the students of the vast career prospects, tertiary institutions, and post-school opportunities available. Standard Bank will also be offering students financial advice on how to fund college fees during the Roadshow.
