

Admakers appointed to market unique property development in Seychelles

Admakers International (Pty) Ltd has been appointed to handle the marketing and public relations of a prestigious marina development in the Seychelles.

Known as Eden Island, this unique development consisting of 450 luxury freehold apartments, maisons and villas entitles owners to private beaches, moorings with first class anchorage facilities and leisure options, i.e. boutiques, restaurants, a clubhouse, supermarket, etc, and enables each owner to qualify and apply for ownership. To date 122 luxury apartments, duplexes and villas have been released. The architectural style is Seychelles vernacular, with spectacular views over the ocean, beaches, forests, mountains and islands.

The opening of the Eden Island Sales Centre, in the capital Victoria on Mahé, was a great success and they have been inundated with requests on the progress of the marina development. The causeway and bridge, linking the island to Mahé are well underway and the building of Eden House (on-site Sales Centre and Show-Unit) on the island is anticipated to be completed by mid June 2006 with the commercial precinct open for all to enjoy towards the end of the year

Admakers has 17 years experience in the luxury property development market and are regarded as the experts in their field. The agency has been a star at the International Property Awards and the International Property Magazine for three consecutive years. In 2002 the agency scooped a Gold Award and a Highly Commendable Award in the category Best Property Marketing Worldwide and won again in 2003 for Best Property Advertisement in the World. A second award for Best Property Marketing in the World, Best Marina Development in the World and Best Property Marketing in SA won in 2004 completed the hat-trick.

Last year the company received three Sappi Awards at what is undoubtedly the most recognized awards ceremony in the printing industry, as well as two Bentley International Property Awards for Best Advertising Agency and Best South African Property.
