

Zim to allow journalists

Zimbabwean officials have agreed to accredit all journalists. This is according to Deputy Foreign Affairs Minister Aziz Pahad following talks between government and Zimbabwean officials. The South African National Editor's Forum (SANEF) welcomes the statement and is urging local journalists to start applying for accreditation in order to cover the presidential election.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>