

Pint Size Media secures new client

Pint Size Media, a digital production agency, has been hired by a startup company, Clear Path Senior and Speciality Move Managers to handle its PR, marketing and social media management.

Clear Path specialises in managing the move of senior citizens and the dispersal of an estate's household goods. The company provides the resources, planning, and support to navigate change in difficult times, ensuring that it never becomes overwhelming to these individuals.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>