

Customer Experience Summit appoints Diane Magers to leadership council

The eighth annual Customer Experience Management Africa Summit has appointed Diane Magers to join its leadership council.

Magers opened the 2018 Summit with a keynote on guiding executives who are looking for a financial return on investment.

She has over 25 years of experience in building and growing customer and employee focus.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>