

Tekkie Tax celebrate new child ambassador

The Tekkie Tax fundraising campaign is proud to announce the recently appointed ambassador for the children's sector of the project. Tekkie Tax is a fundraising project for a large mix of carefully selected welfare organisations, schools and institutions in South Africa.

Hilda Lunderstedt joined forces with Tekkie Tax and will serve as the ambassador for the children's sector in the 2014 Tekkie Tax project. She is a successful business woman who is responsible for growing South Africa's most successful pharmaceutical company to a nine-digit annual revenue. After the recent sale of the company, Hilda now focus on investments in businesses within the beauty and health sectors, both in South Africa and internationally.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>