

Effective teaching, learning through school radio stations

Go Radio has created a complete radio package in a box that is aimed directly at schools to get set up and run their own online radio station.

The creation is School Radio on the Go and was recently launched at Cannons Creek Independent School.

The concept hopes to help change the way we are currently teaching and learning in the 21st century to fully prepare students for life beyond school.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>