

Bidvest International Logistics bags another PMR Diamond Award

Bidvest International Logistics (BIL) has won the PMR Diamond Award - outstanding and first overall, following last year's industry survey conducted by consultancy and research company, PMR. The company has won the award for three consecutive years, and seven times in the last decade.

PMR Africa's annual awards honour professional excellence across a variety of sectors, including freight forwarding, and nominees are rated against attributes and criteria which include Black Economic Empowerment (BEE), relationships with agents, predictability of deliveries, proactive communication with agents and value for money.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>