

Human Rights Arts Festival launch

Centre for Creative Arts in partnership with the Embassy of the Netherlands is launching the Human Rights Arts Festival that will run for four days, from 5 May to 8 May 2021. The theme for the inaugural festival is Voices of Hope, Courage and Resilience. The festival highlights the solidarity between South African and Dutch artists - past and present - whose contributions have been vital to advancing South African democracy. In light of the global pandemic, the will be presented online.
