

The International Public Art Festival (IPAF) returns for its 7th edition

The 7th International Public Art Festival (IPAF) will take place from 1-5 March 2023. Featuring innovative local and international creative talent, IPAF is Africa's largest Public Art Festival, hosted by Baz-Art.

This free festival will be held in and around The Company's Garden, in Cape Town city centre. The public will see art beyond street art and murals. This festival features installations, sculptures, art activations, outdoor pop-up exhibitions, performances and panel talks.
