

Gold Pixel for News24, not Silver

News24.com was one of the Gold Pixel winners in the "Best Publishing Site" category of the 2010 Bookmarks but, because of an administrative error during the consolidation of the awards, it received Silver at the awards evening last week. "We would like to apologise for the error and congratulate News24.com on winning a well-deserved Gold Pixel," says Nikki Cockcroft, Bookmarks chairperson and Digital Media and Marketing Association (DMMA) deputy chair. The awards are organised by the DMMA.
