

United Way Worldwide movement unveils its SA NPO

The United Way Worldwide movement officially launched United Way South Africa in Johannesburg on 1 June 2017. The non-profit organisation is aimed at improving education, income, and health and involves all sectors of society through the strategic collaboration between itself and the communities it intends on helping.

Albert White, Vice President Lilly Foundation and Thabang Tawarima, Board Chairman, United Way South Africa at the launch of United Way South Africa 1 June 2017

Albert White, Vice President Lilly Foundation explains the partnership between Eli Lilly and United Way

Amon Malulke from the Urban Agriculture programme and Bambanani Food and Herb Garden Cooperative

Ashraf Garda, SAfm talk show host presented the keynote address at the launch of United Way South Africa

Khosi Mazibuko, a beneficiary of United Way South Africa, shares her story at the launch of United Way South Africa on 1 June 2017

L-R Ann-Marie Hosang (Eli Lilly), Albert White (Eli Lilly Foundation) and Belinda Bhoodoo (Eli Lilly)

Members of United Way South Africa, United Way Worldwide, Eli Lilly Foundation, Ashraf Garda and Criselda Kananda at the launch of United Way South Africa 1 June 2017

Yvonne Kgame shared words of inspiration at the Launch of United Way South Africa

Accelerate Performance, Coca-Cola, Cummins, Deloitte, Eli Lilly, Fluor, IBM, McCann World Group, YBK Consulting, and 3M are some of the companies that comprise the newly launched NPO's volunteer board.