

Gary Mulder is Club Travel Group's new CEO

Gary Mulder will serve as Club Travel Group's new CEO from 13 December 2019. Mulder will replace founding managing director Wally Gaynor who will retire at the end of the year.

Mulder held the role of financial director at Club Travel since 2000.

In his new role as CEO, he will oversee the group's leisure, corporate, franchise and technology divisions. He will also focus on uniting the group around the new relationship with Travelstart to drive digital product innovation.
