

157 new emojis to choose from

Business Insider South Africa reports that the Unicode Consortium will be rolling out several new emojis this week. According to the report, Unicode's emoji 11.0 update will include the red-headed sector of society aka 'gingers', cupcakes, superheroes, bagels, toilet paper, kangaroos, and llamas.

The total of 157 new symbols may not immediately be available on devices as different mobile systems and platforms will need to update to support the new symbols.
