

Epic Communications adds three new property clients to its portfolio

Specialist financial and professional services PR agency, Epic Communications has secured three new accounts during August, each playing a specialised role in South Africa's property market. The new wins include leading estate agency brands, Vered Estates in Gauteng, as well as Cape-based Durr Estates. The agency has also been appointed by Solomon Brothers Property Holdings to launch Pepper Club - a R400 million five star luxury hotel and spa set to open its doors in Cape Town in February 2010 - to investors and the tourism market.
