

Four-day expo at fashion festival over Easter

The Cape Town Fashion Festival is hosting a four-day Fashion Expo & Sale at the Cape Town International Convention Centre on the Easter weekend (14-17 April 2006). With "A Winter Wonderland of Fashion" as the theme, visitors will be treated to daily designer fashion shows on a ramp of real snow, snow-boarding championships on Friday morning and chocolate everywhere - including chocolate couture. Over 100 stands will offer discounts on purely South African fashion design. Entrance is free.
