

SA Film/Theatre personalities appointed to AFDA campuses

Current Artistic Director of the Market Theatre, Malcolm Purkey, has been appointed as Dean Designate of the AFDA campus in Johannesburg. Award-winning theatre director Greg Homan is head of the Performance School while award-winning film-maker Brent Quinn will be head of the Film School.

In Cape Town, producer, director of photography and photographer, Roy Zeitsky has been appointed as Head of the Film School, with highly experienced TV presenter, producer and news editor Megan Rusi, as Head of the TV School and well-known academic and director Dr. Christopher John as head the Performance School.

Then in Durban, film maker Richard Green has been appointed Head of the Film School, with award-winning actor/playwright and director, Rajesh Gopie as Head of the Performance School and Franco Human, moves from the Cape Town campus to take up the position as Dean of School in Durban.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>