

Organic, eco-living store opens in Nigeria

LAGOS, Nigeria - A New Earth, a fully certified organic food store, with an extensive and complete range of foods, and personal care products, has opened its doors in Lagos, Nigeria.

A New Earth store

A New Earth is a boutique supermarket that first opened its doors on July 1, 2009, in Beirut, Lebanon. For the past seven years they have been the pioneers in all things organic.

Its mission statement: “We thrive to seek out the finest organic foods available, by purchasing products for retail sale from local, regional, as well as international wholesale suppliers and vendors. We strive in personalised service and value our role as the leading educational hub.

“A New Earth maintains the strictest quality standards in the industry, and is rigorously committed to sustainable agriculture.”

New Earth stores want to share this organic lifestyle by bringing to their consumers the most comprehensive selection of organic products available in one place.

“We don’t just sell anything. The products we sell must meet our rigorous standards. From basic ingredients to farm animal welfare, seafood sustainability, body care, cleaning products and more, trust us to do the research so you can shop with peace of mind and fulfilled health.”

A New Earth store provides certified organic products and specialty items such as raw food, gluten-free, vegan, low-sodium and low-fat items; as well as a selection for baby care, including foods and related products.
