

Level 4 lockdown: National parks remain closed

South African National Parks (SANParks) has announced in a statement that all national parks will remain closed during level 4 of the national lockdown.

Members of the public will be prohibited from accessing the national parks, despite Regulation 24 of the Disaster Management Act allowing for walking, running or cycling between 6am to 9am within a 5km radius of your home during level 4 of the lockdown.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>