

New accessible menu offered as The Test Kitchen rebrands

Luke Dale Roberts has announced the reopening of The Test Kitchen, re-imagined and rebranded as The Test Kitchen Origins, offering a paired down fine-dining experience that aims to get back to the origins of what delicious food is, as well as providing the opportunity for more people to try The Test Kitchen in its more manageable form.

"The Test Kitchen was ready for a change, with people wanting to spend less time in the dining room, while still feeling comforted, pampered and well fed!" says Roberts.

The dishes will consist of seasonal produce, with a distinct focus on the use of small purveyors and suppliers. Items on the menu include starters of "Leeks Confit" with lobster "Arnold Bennet", bisque reduction, tomato fondant and lemon thyme mousseline and mains of "Apple, Smoked and Roasted" with slow-cooked pork belly, confit red cabbage, bacon and gewurztraminer jus.

The Test Kitchen Origins will be open for lunch and dinner, Mondays to Fridays from 1 October. Go to www.thetestkitchen.co.za for more information.
