Tickets for one of the industry's most anticipated bashes of the year, the annual AMASA party, are now available for online purchase.

Themed The Great Gatsby and set to be held on 31 October at Thatchers in Lonehill, AMASA has for the first time taken the ticketing process wholly online. Tickets will be sold at an "across the board" price of R250 each including VAT.

Dustine Tobler, deputy chairperson of AMASA and head of the party portfolio says: "The decision to sell tickets only online will firstly free up hours of admin from our side and secondly, the online process is a natural progression since we have the platforms and technology available to us. We're confident of a smooth process!"

Tickets are limited to 1200 people and can be purchased by visiting <http://www.amasa.org.za/annualparty.php>

"AMASA is once again collecting toys for the children at Little Switzerland and we urge our partygoers to please bring along a gift which will be delivered to our charity before the end of the year," she says.

Prizes are available for the Best Dressed Team and the Best Dressed Individual.
