

4G LTE rolled out in Zambia

Mobile operator, MTN, has rolled out its 4G LTE service in Zambia in an effort to increase broadband speed and mobile connectivity in the country, reports Ventures Africa.

© styleuneeed via Fotolia.com

For more:

- Ventures Africa: MTN Introduces 4G LTE In Zambia... According to the report, MTN will be the first operator to make the service available in Zambia and is still in its first phase which currently provides the 4G service consumers in Lusaka, Kitwe, Ndola and Livingstone. The second phase is expected to further expand coverage to other provinces.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>